

The Triton is a mobile, modular anaesthesia machine for manual ventilation in a semi-open breathing system. With the optional closed circle system, including the CO₂ absorber, the Triton can easily be upgraded to a fully equipped anaesthesia machine for manual ventilation. The easily operable and mobile Triton is an ideal solution for any in-hospital emergency and/or decentralised anaesthesia.